

I am already besieged by unwanted postal mail, to the tune of over 3 pieces per day. I was relieved when the phone started to be safe. I now have to pay $4.95 per month to have caller ID if I don't want to be bothered at all. The do not call lists only go so far, it seems. Please do not remove the only protection that is afforded to my privacy!